

The visit was to Zamil air conditioners factory, and it was held on the 7th March 2019 with 25 people attending it.

The visit started with introducing the layout of the factory followed by explaining the role of the different facilities and what is the types of products that are produced in this factory. Afterward, there was a tour around the factory in each part there was an explanation of the role of industrial engineers.

