

Biographies

Zakka Ugi Rizqi is an Industrial Engineering student in the Islamic University of Indonesia, Department of Industrial Engineering. He is an undergraduate student and has a great grade in his university. His research interests include simulation, optimization, and project management. He also works as a laboratory assistant of industrial modelling and simulation in Islamic University of Indonesia. He also actively participates in the competition of industrial engineering and in the conference as a presenter.

Rachmat Aulia is a student of Industrial Engineering in the Islamic University of Indonesia, Department of Industrial Engineering. He also works as a laboratory assistant of Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) in Islamic University of Indonesia. He is also known for his good public speaking skills. His research interests include Supply Chain Management, Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP), and Logistic Management.