

Philippine Institute of Industrial Engineers – National Student Chapter (PIIE – NSC), and Operations Research Society of the Philippines (ORSP) since 2016.

Julius C. Palagam is currently a fifth year Industrial Engineering student at Technological Institute of the Philippines – Quezon City. He is an active member of Organization of Industrial Engineering Students (ORIENTS), Philippine Institute of Industrial Engineers – National Student Chapter (PIIE – NSC), and Operations Research Society of the Philippines (ORSP).

John Rowe V. Pineda is currently a fourth year Industrial Engineering student at Technological Institute of the Philippines – Quezon City. He is the present Dance Guild Head of Organization of Industrial Engineering Students (ORIENTS) of their school and TIP Ambassador of his school for Admissions and Marketing Office since 2014 up to present.

Romalyn L. Galingan is currently an Assistant Professor in the Department of Industrial Engineering at Technological Institute of the Philippines – Quezon City. She earned her B.S. in Industrial Engineering at the said college and currently taking up her Master of Science in Industrial Engineering at Polytechnic University of the Philippines.