

Philippines. She is a Professional Industrial Engineer (PIE) with over 10 years of experience. She has taught courses in Methods Engineering, Systems Simulation, Engineering Economy and Systems Engineering. She has done research projects in systems simulation and systems engineering. She is a member of Philippine Institute of Industrial Engineers (PIIE).

Dianne Marie B. De Francia graduated from Mapua University with a B.S. degree in Service Engineering and Management. She is a member of Operation Research Society of the Philippines (ORSP) – Mapua Chapter and also an active member of PROMAP (Production and Operations Management Association of the Philippines). Her research interest includes Operations Research and Systems Simulation. She is working as a Production Controller under Ground Support Maintenance at an Airline Company in the Philippines and chooses to focus and to gain expertise in the Manufacturing and Production field.

Joymicah O. Paulo graduated from Mapua University with a B.S. degree in Service Engineering and Management. She is a member of Philippine Institute of Industrial Engineers (PIIE) Mapua Chapter, an active officer of Mapua Engineering and Management Organization and also an active member in Operation Research Society of the Philippines (ORSP) Mapua Chapter. Her research interest includes Operations Research and Systems Simulation. She worked as a Process Engineer at a Telecom Company in the Philippines and now working as a Material Analyst in the leading brand of Ice Cream in the Philippines.